

Why choose me for your special day ?

By Salomé - Hoop des Bois

Dear future newlyweds,

First of all, if you're here, it means you're getting married.
So, congratulations ! 🍷

I know how important it is for you to choose the right providers.
And photography is a key element, as it's what will remain from this beautiful day.
So, I understand you might have questions — that's completely normal.

This little guide is here to help you figure out if I'm the right person to support you throughout your wedding day — and of course, before and after as well.

I truly hope it helps you.

About me

I am

Salomé

Hoop des Bois,

photographer based between Lot and Dordogne (and anywhere in the world, as long as it resonates!).

Blending sensitivity and poetry, I'll capture your love through vibrant images full of movement, light, laughter, and emotion.

Kind-hearted and deeply human, feelings are at the heart of my approach, my work, and the connection we'll share.

My goal ?

To tell unforgettable stories and create timeless memories.

What I love most is adding a touch of poetry to everyday life.

I'm always in search of beauty seeking to elevate emotions and fleeting moments.

With over ten years of experience in photography, I've developed a distinctive style bohemian, vintage, and poetic thanks in part to my beloved analog lenses.

I'm deeply passionate about art and also a floral illustrator.

I've been married to my love, a knife maker (very classy!), since 2021.

As a literature lover, I read a lot it's how I get through winter. I'm also a sporty soul, in love with nature.

As you may have guessed, my season is summer: cicadas singing, sun-drenched days, and jumping into the water.

Come, let's make art together !

A Personalized and Unique Approach

Your wedding is an exceptional moment, and your photos should reflect your love story. I take the time to get to know you, to talk about your expectations, and to understand your vision so I can create memories that truly feel like you.

With me, connection is everything.

Between us, I want it to match.

From our very first conversation to the delivery of your photos, I'll be by your side with kindness and professionalism. I'll guide you through the best times for your photo sessions, help choose ideal locations, and share those little tips that make all the difference.

I always adapt to your individual needs.

If you'd like us to talk regularly, I'm happy to be available on WhatsApp or by phone, whether it's to check in, share updates on the planning, or just chat.

And if you'd rather keep things simple and low-key, that's completely fine too.

Every wedding is unique and so is every couple.

You're always welcome in my home, to chat, sip a coffee, talk about the big day, and share a few of my favorite wedding tips.

A Poetic and Vintage Style

I take an artistic approach that blends poetry and vintage charm.

My goal is to capture genuine moments, honest emotions, and the little details that make your day unforgettable.

My little secret?

I shoot with vintage film lenses, that have their own magical quirks.

They bring a beautiful grain

I adore, offering a retro feel and images that speak for themselves.

Because perfectly technical photos are great but photos that tell a story and add poetry? That's even better.

My photos are made to stand the test of time without losing their charm.

To tell your story, your special day through warm, emotional, and truly unique images.

Discretion and Professionalism

On your wedding day, I blend in with your guests to capture every moment spontaneously. My experience and technical skills allow me to anticipate key moments while staying discreet to preserve the authenticity of your celebration.

If you need it, I can also be right there by your side during the ceremonies.

I'll offer you a reassuring smile or even pull a funny face to ease the tension when things get emotional or stressful.

As always, I adapt to your needs, your day, and your guests!

Artistic and Technical Expertise

I've been a photographer for over ten years (already!).

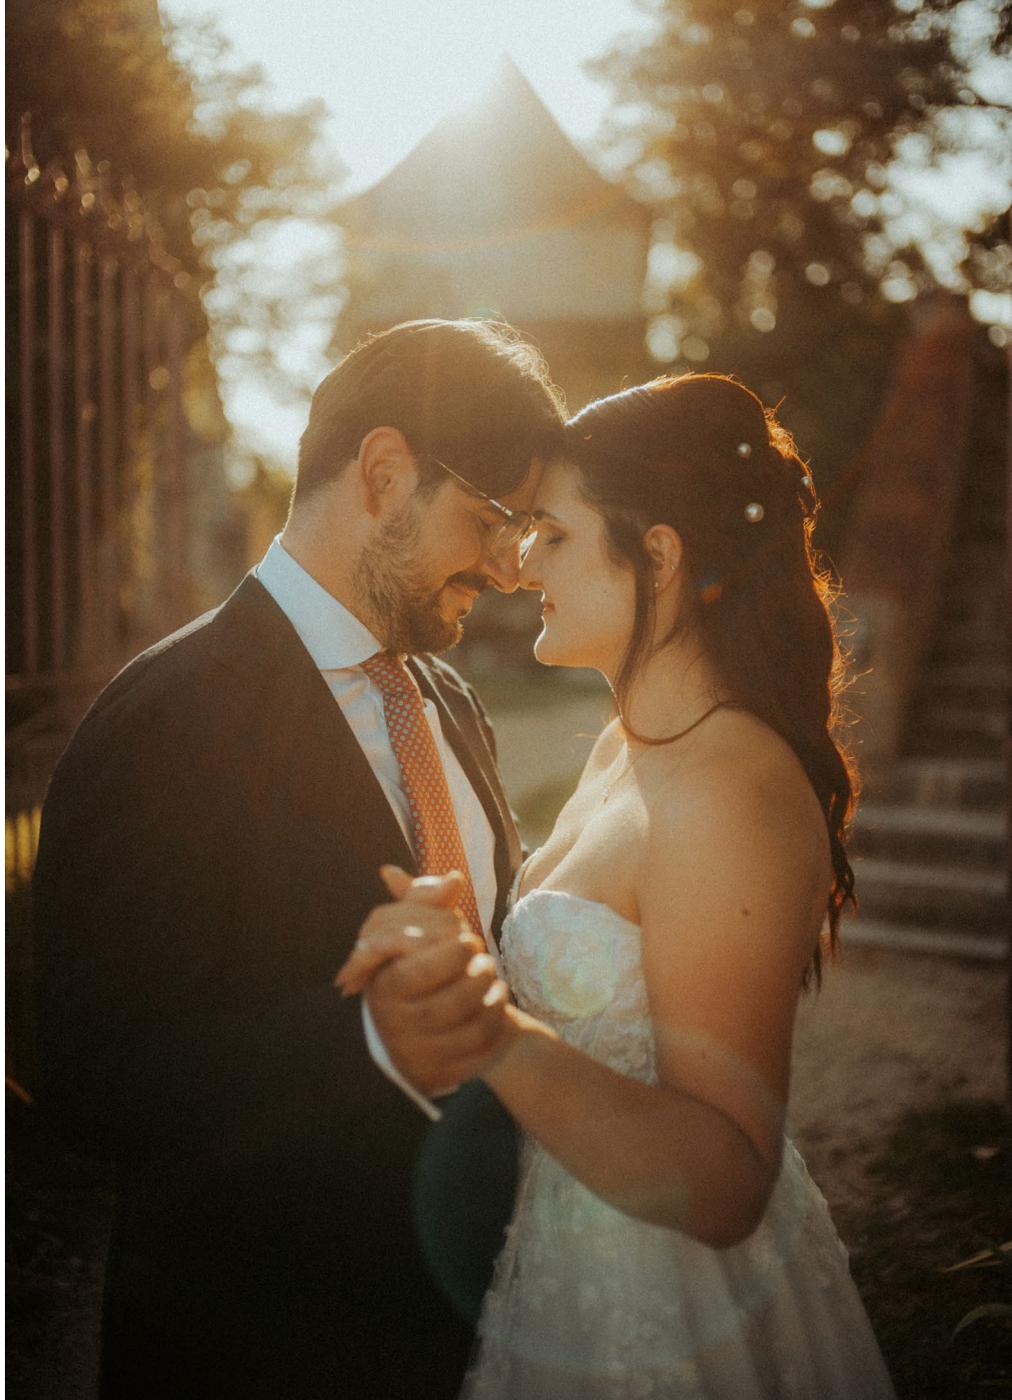

And I've had the joy of capturing weddings for several years now.

Thanks to my knowledge in photography and post-processing, every image receives careful attention.

I enhance the colors, light, and atmosphere of your day to deliver a unique, poetic result.

And to help guide you through the process, I offer a little welcome guide for all my couples

I'll send it to you as soon as the contract is signed.

The Engagement Session

All of my packages include an engagement session.

Ideally, this takes place at my home so we can have a coffee, talk, and take our time together.

This session gives us a chance to meet in person, connect, and help you get comfortable in front of the camera.

You'll see it really helps take the pressure off photography.

It's always such a lovely, relaxed time. I let you be yourselves, and I guide you gently so you always feel at ease.

Most of the time, these photos are perfect for your wedding invitations or save-the-dates.

How Will You Receive Your Photos?

I share your photos through a private online gallery.

I'll send you the access by email, and you can then share it with your guests so they can view everything too.

Prints can also be ordered directly from the gallery site.

Delivery Timeline

Because I'm someone who loves to capture fleeting energy, souls, and ambiance, I immerse myself fully in your special day, and I always start editing your photos as soon as possible, to stay close to the atmosphere and feeling of the moment.

So my delivery times are pretty fast: between one and two months after the wedding.

In reality, it's often more like two to three weeks.

And What About Prints ?

When it comes to prints, I like to give you time. I don't include them in my standard packages — I prefer to wait until you have your photos.

Once you've received your gallery, you're welcome to reach out so we can create a beautiful album together, using your favorite images.

I work exclusively with fine art paper, for high-quality prints that are made to last, with exceptional color rendering.

Prices vary depending on the number of pages and photos you choose but I always aim to stay as close as possible to your needs and your budget.

LGBTQ+ couples ? Welcome !

Love comes in a thousand forms, and each one deserves to be celebrated.

As a committed photographer, I am dedicated to providing a deeply caring space where every couple can be fully themselves.

I embrace a vision of marriage that is truly inclusive. I love telling authentic love stories, without boxes or labels, and the diversity of couples is a true treasure to me.

LGBTQ+ couples, you are safe here, welcomed with warmth and respect.

I would be truly delighted to capture your story – your tender gestures, your glances, your laughter – and to create sensitive, genuine images that reflect the depth and beauty of your connection.

Words That Speak for Themselves

Many couples have placed their trust in me, and have shared their kind words and satisfaction through glowing testimonials.

My promise is to offer you a smooth, joyful experience and most importantly, unforgettable memories.

Marion & JB

We were incredibly lucky to have Salomé by our side to capture our wedding, and from our very first conversations, we knew she was the perfect person.

She is a talented and passionate photographer, and above all, a radiant human being with a wonderfully contagious energy.

Her kindness, warmth, and smile immediately put us at ease!

She captured moments of pure emotion, spontaneous laughter, and intimate glances... so many genuine moments that transport us back to that magical day every time we look at our photos.

The result is simply stunning: photos full of softness, life, and authenticity. We couldn't have dreamed of better memories to treasure.

Beyond her immense talent, Salomé is a beautiful soul—human and luminous—who made the whole experience even more special. We are deeply grateful to have shared this journey with her.

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for everything.

Valentine & Benjamin

Salomé photographed our wedding in June this year.

Simply put, it couldn't have been anyone else! The photos are absolutely gorgeous and everyone has loved them.

Salomé knows how to make you feel comfortable and gives great guidance to achieve natural, lively photos.

She was amazing from start to finish, both extremely professional and incredibly friendly. She supported us from the very beginning to help organize everything and gave us lots of tips to make the day go smoothly.

Go for it—you won't regret choosing her!

Iysha & Julien

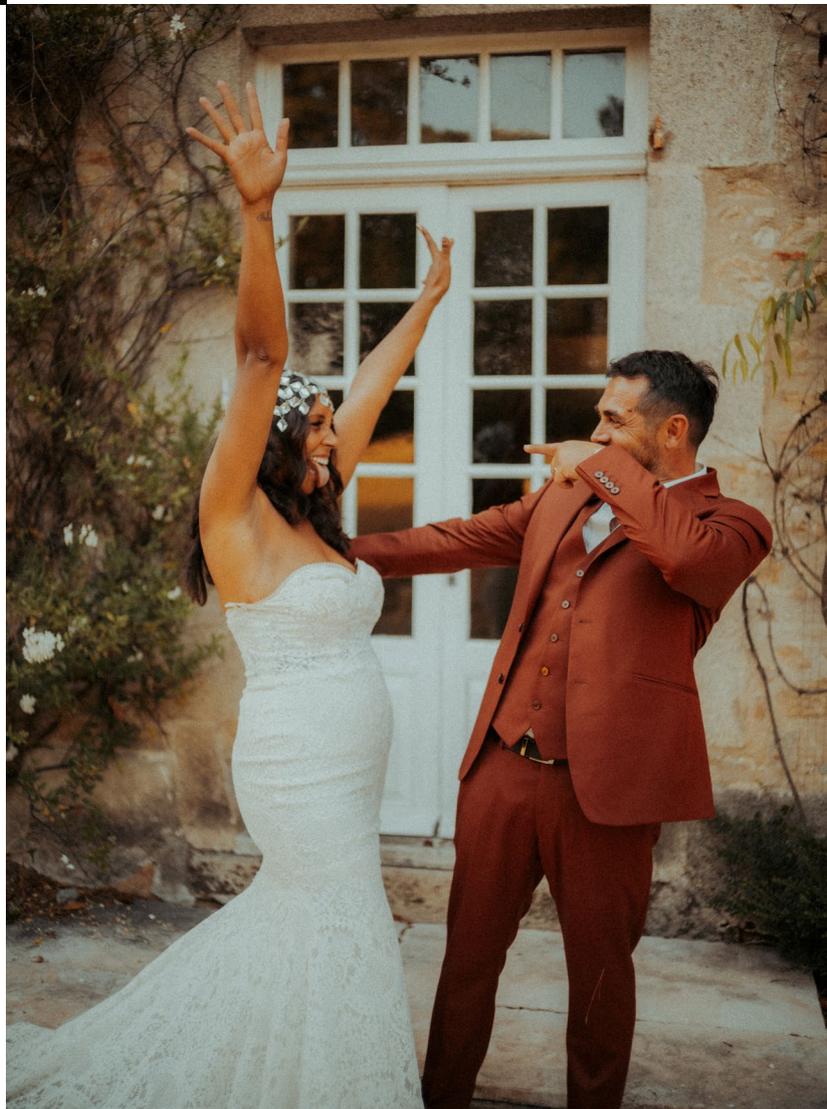

Salomé is not just a photographer; she's an alchemist of images.

Beyond our wildest expectations, the photos of our wedding captured our love in a series of breathtaking images.

She captures the soul, spirit, and essence of the moment through her lens with mastery and grace.

We are deeply moved every time we look at the photos, and we wholeheartedly recommend Salomé for capturing special occasions. She is a genius with a camera.

Salomé, you are wonderful, and we are so blessed to have you in our lives as a friend of the heart and soul.

Juliette & Alexis

There are souls that radiate kindness and generosity.

Salomé is one of them.

She elevates every moment she captures with her incredible talent.

She instantly creates a sense of trust and serenity, as if you were sharing the moment with a close friend.

A thousand thanks for capturing every moment of our wedding and translating all the emotions into photos.

We can't wait to celebrate more beautiful moments through her images.

Marine & Thomas

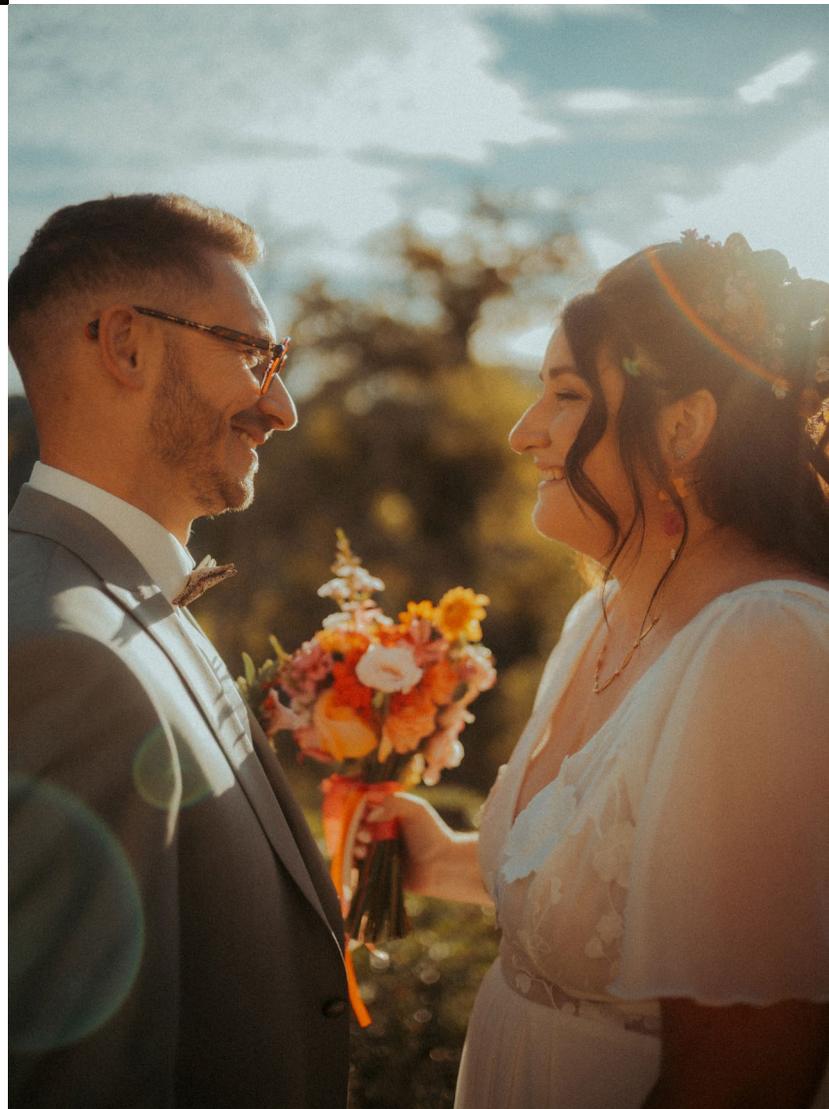

Don't hesitate—just go for it!

Salomé is an incredible person and photographer, rare in her gentleness and kindness.

We hired her for our wedding (and also for an engagement shoot), and we have absolutely no regrets.

It's true that photography is an investment for such an event, but the quality of Salomé's work is worth every penny: These are priceless memories for a lifetime.

The photos she provided after our big day (and very quickly, too) speak for themselves and capture all the emotion and tenderness of the day. Salomé knows how to reassure even the shyest, put them at ease, and capture the perfect moments and small details.

And if the wedding takes place far from Lot or Dordogne ?

I travel anywhere love takes me!
Whether it's in France or abroad, I go wherever it vibes for you.
If you'd like me to accompany you, feel free to contact me so we can discuss the different possibilities.

My travel and accommodation expenses will need to be covered, but I always do my best to keep the costs as fair as possible.
